VANITY CASE
If you are aged between 18 and 24 and a beauty junkie, you must be Aunty's niece "G" girl. Clinique is on the hunt for 12 gorgeous gals to trial and review their products over 12 months in an effort to discover what one of the country's really want. Winners will be matched by a Clinique consultant and hooked up with the best LG 4G 290 mobile phone (among other things). Register at www.cliniquegirl.com.au with a pic of yourself and 25 words about why you think you'd be perfect for the job. Entries close October 7.

1 ANTI-WRINKLE INJECTIONS I've been lucky to avoid wrinkles, but lately I've noticed my skin deepening in little, annoying creases. After I read up, I went to Dr Steven Liew, and he said he'd recommend that I look at your usual needs. And you know what? It was my little secret! Stuart Chin & Heidi Ng Suite 301, 190 Boundary Street, Darlinghurst, Ph: 8388 2888	2 CROWN FIRING FACIAL SKIN I'm not overly in glowing, but already I'm getting wrinkles. During the treatment, I was surprised to find it was so indulgent and intertwined with La Prairie products, including a Clinique Pro-Cell and Cancer Pearls. It left my skin soft, glowing and firm. The Observatory Hotel Day Spa 89-93 Kings Street, Sydney Ph: 8244 5280	3 VITAMIN FACIAL POA The Sydney sunshine ravages my fair skin. And as much as I like to think my body is a temple, it doesn't often get the worship it deserves. The answer? Vitamins. Especially C and A. A CosMedix benefit peel is applied to stimulate my collagen and pump my sensitive skin with antioxidants. My fine lines had vanished after one session. Silkwood Medical, Level 4, 75 Grafton Street, Bondi Junction Ph: 9387 3900
